DON HARTMAN CONSERVATION LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

Aquatics: Healthy Streams, Healthy Ecosystems

June 24 2013—June 28 2013

The Don Hartman Conservation Leadership School is a week long experience allowing youth to develop skills and confidence that will last a lifetime!

What is DHCLS?

The Don Hartman Conservation Leadership School is a FUN five day residential program designed to educate young people on stewardship of local and global natural resources. Each summer, students explore a different theme and develop critical thinking and problem solving skills.

Students who participate in this hands-on program will have the opportunity to:

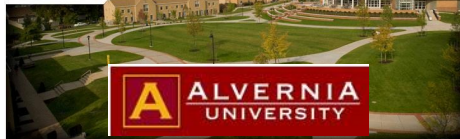

- ◆ Experience college living on a University Campus
- ◆ Hike and camp one night in the wide open spaces of Berks County.
- ◆ Improve the environment by participating in ecological service projects.
- ◆ Learn about environmental careers from the professionals
- ◆ Learn about Berks County streams and their ecosystems

When Does It Take Place?

Monday, June 24, 9:00 am through Friday, June 28, 8:00 pm

Where Does It Occur?

Alvernia University, French Creek State Park, Nolde Forest Environmental Education Center, and surrounding areas.

Who May Apply?

Students entering 9th through 12th grades in the fall of 2013

How To Apply?

Submit applications, with appropriate payment, to the Berks County Conservation District (1238 County Welfare Rd. Leesport, PA 19533). Enrollment is limited to the first 20 applicants accepted. Applicants are notified in writing of their acceptance into the program.

What Is The Cost?

$190.00 per participant (meals, housing, computer access, and transportation). Local sportsmen clubs/civic organizations may offer scholarships to participants. Prior to sending in the application please call the Berks County Conservation District to find out if tuition scholarships are available (610) 372-4657 ext: 211.
